NARRATIVE:

On May 19, 2017 at 1618 hours the Burlington Police Dispatch Center received multiple 911 calls reporting a man, later identified as Jason Breault, waving a gun around at the intersection of Main St and Church St. This incident took place during a time of heavy pedestrian traffic, causing people to fear for their safety. Pedestrians sought safety at local businesses, which prompted business owners to close their doors for safety.

Responding officers were able to safely de-escalate the situation without incident and arrested Breault for Disorderly Conduct and Violation of Pre-trial Conditions of Release. Breault was found to be in possession of a BB gun, which was a replica of a Colt 1911, he was also in possession of a knife.

Breault is currently under the supervision of the Chittenden County Probation and Parole office. In addition Breault currently has six (6) active sets of pre-trial conditions of release. One of these cases is a felony 2nd Degree Aggravated Domestic Assault, which states he cannot be in possession of a dangerous weapon.

Breault has previously been charged with 6 felony crimes and 23 misdemeanor crimes, 7 of those charges were classified as assaultive crimes.

Breault was lodged at the Chittenden Regional Correctional Facility in South Burlington for a lack of $750 bail.
