NARRATIVE:

On June 22, 2016 at approximately 1855 hours the Burlington Police responded to the report of a male carrying a gun in the area Oak Street. Through investigation it was determined the male had not committed any crimes.

The police department is familiar with the male and he is known to have a firearm in his possession. When police met with the male he was agitated as he thought he was being harassed about carrying a firearm. Multiple officers responded only as a precaution due to the greater risk to police when dealing with someone who has a firearm. The male was released without incident.

At this time there is no further investigation required as a result of tonight's complaint.
