

Livable Wage Ordinance

Are You
Receiving
A Livable
Wage?

The Burlington Livable Wage Ordinance requires that if you are working on a specific City of Burlington service contract or subcontract above a certain amount your employer must pay you at least $13.94 an hour with health insurance.

$13.94

If you are working on a specific City of Burlington service contract or subcontract above a certain amount your employer must pay you at least $15.83 an hour without health insurance.

$15.83

Are You
Eligible to Receive The Livable Wage?

Covered employees are required to be paid the above amounts. If you are covered and your employer reduces your pay, your employer shall be considered in violation. You are protected by law if you assert your rights under the Livable Wage Ordinance.

Why Report A
Livable Wage
Violation?

If your employer is required to be paying you the Livable Wage and is not, he or she may be required to pay you back wages and be subject to any other appropriate action as outlined in the Ordinance.

Employee
Earned
Income Tax
Credit

Are you raising a family and making less than $30,000? If so, you could be eligible to receive the Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC.) You may even be eligible if your income is so low that you do not owe any taxes. The EITC can reduce your taxes or provide a cash refund. There is a federal and state EITC, so ask about both. To find out if you qualify and how to get this benefit speak to your employer's payroll clerk or call IRS at 1.800.TAX.1040.
