Comment/Question: Dear members of the City Council, I am writing a story for the Champlain College newspaper on the subject of the recent city gun control bill, and would appreciate any feedback you could provide as to the status of the bill in terms of ratification. I am aware that the gun control bill on the state level has been withdrawn. Do you see this as posing a challenge in getting approval from the state legislature? How might the bill need to be refined in order to succeed? Furthermore, how do you respond to the opposition which states that the bill is infringing on 2nd amendment rights, and would also be ineffective at reducing the risk of violent gun crimes? Thank you for your time, and I look forward to hearing back. Sincerely, Christian Belekewicz
