NARRATIVE:

On September 28, 2022 at approximately 0732 hours, the Burlington Police Dispatch Center received a 911 regarding a male being robbed and assaulted.

Upon arrival, Officers spoke to the victim and collected evidence. The victim stated he entered the bank's vestibule to use the ATM to withdraw money when he observed two female transients sleeping on the floor. The victim completed his ATM transaction when one of the female transients punched him in the face and took his money. The female suspect fled the area prior to police arriving. The male sustained minor injury and declined medical treatment.

Surveillance video in the area captured the female suspect fleeing the area. A photo of the female suspect is attached to the press release. The Burlington Police Department is asking the public's help with identifying the female captured in the surveillance video.

Anyone with information about this incident is asked to contact the Burlington Police Department at (802) 658-2704.

Information is preliminary and subject to change.
