MEDIA RELEASE

November 8, 2023

Today, the United States Attorney's Office for the District of Vermont honored a number of individuals from federal, state, and local law enforcement agencies at their annual Law Enforcement Awards Ceremony. The ceremony was held this morning at the United States Courthouse and Federal Building here in Burlington. Nominations of individuals are made by the U.S. Attorney's Office Staff in recognition of their exceptional work. Our own Detective Eric Dalla Mura was recognized and he received the Outstanding Collaborative Investigation Award.

The Outstanding Collaborative Investigation Award is awarded to those who have demonstrated outstanding efforts in collaboration with multiple agencies in order to meet the mission of the U.S. Attorney's Office.

To enforce the federal criminal laws of the United States, to represent the interests of the United States in civil litigation, and to ensure the public safety needs of the community through cooperative working relationships between state, local and federal law enforcement agencies and community partners in the District of Vermont.

Detective Dalla Mura, along with Special Agent Samuel Brown from the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives, received this award for their tremendous work on the 2019 Willard Street homicide case. Family and friends gathered, along with colleagues from both the Burlington Police Department and the Chittenden Unit for Special Investigations to join in the celebratory event.

Information is preliminary and subject to change.
