

POLICE DEPARTMENT
CITY OF BURLINGTON

MEDIA RELEASE

April 17, 2024

The Burlington Police Department has released the newest informational video featuring our Recruitment team.

Recruitment is a vital component for any law enforcement agency and the BPD is no exception. Our department has seen significant changes in our staff in recent years. Efforts to rebuild and grow our team remains a top priority – leading these efforts are our Recruitment Officer and Recruitment Coordinator.

“We are looking for compassionate, courageous, and motivated individuals who want to help people and be a part of this community.”

— Corporal Carolynne Erwin, Recruitment Officer

“We like to go personal and really look at each applicant and their skills and guiding them to what best fits their needs.”

— Anhad Bajwa, Recruitment Coordinator

While our Recruitment team's focus is hiring, our department has a shared responsibility of recruiting and retention efforts. We encourage our community to help and spread the word – the BPD is hiring.

The Recruitment episode, along with other episodes from our informational video series, can be viewed on the BPD's YouTube channel. The purpose of this video series is to educate the public on the different teams/aspects within the BPD and to help better understand the work and importance each have here at the department.

Information is preliminary and subject to change.
