I. PROJECT BACKGROUND

On June 29, 2020 the Burlington City Council adopted a Resolution Relating to Racial Justice through Economic and Criminal Justice that created a Joint Committee comprised of the City Council Public Safety Committee and the City’s Police Commission to begin an inquiry into the question of how to build a healthy and safe community and what institutions we need to reach that goal. The resolution further directed that this inquiry includes a full operational and functional assessment of the Burlington Police Department with full community participation and input. The assessment is to include rigorous public process and input and involve local groups such as the Racial Justice Alliance, Howard Center, Boys and Girls Club, Anew Place, Spectrum Youth and Family Services and others.

The Joint Committee has met and now seeks a facilitator to structure public input and facilitate community discussion and the involvement of community organizations in this process.

II. SCOPE OF WORK

The selected consultant will be expected to complete assist the Joint Committee in 1) obtaining public input as to the needs, values, and vision of the community of Burlington, and 2) suggest the design of an ongoing program for obtaining public input into the operations of the police department.

The Joint Committee suggests a start-up virtual meeting with representatives of the organizations listed in Exhibit G covering what is going well and where there are gaps. Then, a series of feedback mechanisms geared toward individual community members may verify, alter, or add to this baseline. Finally, a second virtual meeting with the organizations to provide recommendations on solutions for the identified needs and gaps. The proposal may alter from this suggestion to fit the consultant’s facilitation approach. However, the selected consultant will be expected to:

1. Design a plan to obtain public input about the needs, values, and vision of the community of Burlington on the question of how to build a healthy and safe community and what institutions we need to reach that goal;
2. Work with the committee to design appropriate feedback mechanisms, such as participatory workshops and survey materials;
3. Facilitate the collection of feedback from the community, including both the local groups listed in Exhibit G and other organizations identified by the Joint Committee as well as individual community members;
4. Record and report the feedback from the community, using consensus-based approaches where possible, for inclusion in the Committee’s review and analysis; and
5. Draft a strategy or program for continuous effective community input into a methodical transition to a public safety apparatus that delivers services aligned with the values and vision of the community.

III. RESPONSE FORMAT

To be considered for this position the interested consultant’s proposal should include the following:

1. A description of the consultant’s general approach to facilitating meetings and ability to support discussions on sensitive or divisive subject matter;
2. A description of the consultant’s experience obtaining public input, consulting with community and NGO leaders, administering public surveys, and assessing general public sentiment, and eliciting specific subjective evidence and anecdotal information;
3. A description of the consultant’s experience facilitating meetings in a virtual environment and synthesizing the outputs in an accessible manner;
4. A description of the consultant’s experience eliciting participation from historically underrepresented communities;
5. A description of how the consultant would aid the Joint Committee in encouraging community attendance at and participation in meetings;
6. At least three references who can positively attest to the consultant’s above experience;
7. A detailed cost proposal.
