NARRATIVE:

On January 28, 2014, at approximately 1145 hrs, the Burlington Police responded to an assault connected with a retail theft that occurred at Kerry's Kwik Stop at 249 Saint Paul St. The suspect was caught on surveillance video, and the Burlington Police are currently investigating the incident.

The suspect has yet to be identified, but was shown on video as a heavysset white female, in her 30s or early 40s, with dirty blonde or possibly light brown hair. She is approximately 5'04"-5'06," wearing a thigh-length light purple jacket and black or navy blue sweatpants. The female was also seen with a large black handbag, and was last seen running southbound on Saint Paul St. in Burlington.

The Burlington Police are asking anyone with any information regarding the identity of the female to contact Officer Emily Healy at (802) 540-2334. Photographs of the suspect are attached.
