

A

Building is set 9' from sidewalk. Average grade is determined by taking the midpoint average of the high point of building footprint on the site and the low point of the building footprint on the site. The building height then extends up 65' from that point. Each horizontal line represents a 10' increment starting at the lowest point of the building on the site.