New Business

a. August Election Recap

Katherine Miles stated that she had been approached on Election Day regarding the eligibility of a Burlington voter. Amy Bovee reminded the Board that on Election Day, the two reasons that a voter can be challenged are that they are not the person they say they are, or that they have already voted. Other concerns should be directed to the City Clerk's Office and the Board could address the matter at a meeting. Jim Rader said that he and the committee would include that information in the procedures.

Lis Mickenberg noted concerns with the layout of her polling place. Amy Bovee suggested that they schedule a meeting with the Ward Clerk to discuss them.

b. Prepare for November Election

Lis Mickenberg reminded Board members to find and recruit helpers for the November Election. She also reminded Board members that there is a vacant seat on the Board and to encourage people to apply.

Helen Rock requested that a portion of the next meeting be dedicated to role playing scenarios.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:11 pm.

Next Meeting: Tuesday, October 2, 6pm, Community Room, Police Department

Respectfully Submitted By:

Amy Bovee, Assistant City Clerk
