A quorum was not present for the meeting, therefore no action was taken.

Amy Bovee gave an update to the Board to let them know that their new envelope design has been approved and been send to the printers. She also let the Board know that the Clerk/Treasurer's Office will begin closing at noon on the Monday before each election to allow staff to have more ballots sent to the polls at the beginning of Election Day. They are also exploring the idea of a Charter Change that would require local ballots to be ready at the same time as state ballots.

Annie Schneider provided an update about work that has been done to create voting demonstration videos in different languages, hold voting information events for new Americans, and to have translated sample ballots available at the polls for the March Election.

Next Meeting: Tuesday, December 3, 6pm, Community Room, Police Department

Amy Bovee, Assistant City Clerk
