Please note that some boards and commissions may not have an open spot or more than one person applying, so please pick multiple options. To learn more about each board or commission, please find the descriptions on the YOB webpage.

5. Briefly describe why you are interested in serving on your 1st choice commission/board.

Decisions about Youth on Boards placement are made by the Mayor's Youth Advisory Council, a diverse group of students living in Burlington that meet monthly. As representatives of the City of Burlington, they do not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, religion, age, or disability in placing youth on different boards and commissions. Young women, youth of color, and youth with disabilities are highly encouraged to apply.
