COFFEE WITH THE CHIEF
Friday, November 7, 2014 – 8 to 9 am
Fletcher Free Library

Recent events throughout the nation have brought attention to police operations on a number of topics. As we reach our 150th Anniversary in 2015 we had planned to kick off monthly coffees with the Chief of Police to discuss the 150-year history and future of the Department. Those events were anticipated to begin in January of 2015.

This week we've had our own public discussions of police operations. As a result, it seems appropriate to accelerate the schedule for the first coffee to November rather than wait for January.

As we work to keep Burlington among the safest and healthiest cities in the nation, the public is invited to this first coffee to discuss policing issues, community safety, and the future.

(Please note that the Library is not yet open at this time. Attendees will be able to enter at 8 am and periodically from 8 to 8:15 as staff shuttles people in.)
