NARRATIVE:

On April 3, 2015 at approximately 16:45 pm, Burlington Police received a report of a robbery in progress at the Lakeside Pharmacy on Pearl Street in Burlington. Officers responded to the scene, arriving within minutes and began an investigation. The suspect was described as a White Male, 5'11", Heavy Build, Dark Shorts, Dark hooded sweatshirt, wearing a Surgical Mask, Goggles and glasses.

This individual entered the store, approached the pharmacy counter and indicated that they had a weapon while demanding opiates. The staff surrendered opiates to the individual, who subsequently fled on Pearl Street and then into the surrounding neighborhood. A track by a police canine developed some avenues of investigation but did not locate the individual. A full inventory of the type of drugs obtained and their quantity is still being conducted. No injuries were reported and no weapon was observed.

A still image from the store surveillance is attached for reference. Any individuals with information or questions regarding this incident are asked to contact Detective Michael Hemond at (802)540-2229 at the Burlington Police or Crime Stoppers.
