NARRATIVE:

On the above date and time, Burlington Police received numerous 911 calls in regards to a male threatening resident of the Cayuga Court neighborhood. While Officers were en-route more 911 calls reported that the male showed a knife and had a rope wrapped around his hands while continuing to threaten residents to a physical altercation.

Officers arrived on scene and identified Jason Breault as the aggressor still engaging in threatening behaviors on the street. Breault was initially non-compliant and confrontational to officers' requests to safely comply. After a short conversation he was taken into custody. Breault was lodged at the Chittenden County Correctional Center for the offenses of Simple Assault and Disorderly Conduct.

Breault has thirteen (13) active sets of Pre-trial Conditions of Release stemming from initial separate charges of 2nd Degree Aggravated Domestic Assault, Aggravated Disorderly Conduct, Resisting Arrest, Disorderly Conduct, Violation of Conditions of Release, DUI, Unlawful Mischief, and Unlawful Trespass.

Breault had most recently been arrested and lodged at the Correctional Center on Saturday August 12, 2017 for the offenses of Disorderly Conduct and Violations of Conditions of Release. Breault was released from custody this afternoon (8/14/17) on further Pre-Trial Conditions of Release.
