NARRATIVE:

On August 9th, 2017 at approximately 5:09 PM the Burlington Police Department received numerous 911 calls reporting a disturbance and possible stabbing at 184 Church Street. Officers responding to the incident discovered a male victim bleeding from the hand, however, later determined the injury was not a stab wound and appeared to be an accidental injury.

Subsequent investigation revealed there had been a domestic dispute involving Daniel Leary. He was charged with First Degree Aggravated Domestic Assault, Unlawful Mischief for damaging the window of a police cruiser and Disorderly Conduct for spitting at members of the media who were on scene.

Leary has a criminal history including arrests for Violation of Conditions of Release, Simple Assault on a Police Officer and has failed to appear in court numerous times. Leary was held on $5,000 bail and will be arraigned tomorrow in Chittenden Superior Court.

Anyone who may have witnessed this incident or can provide additional information is being asked to contact Officer Moyer at (802) 540-2326.
