REVOCABLE TRUST for Rental Unit at)

FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW, AND ORDER

The above-named hearing came before the Housing Board of Review on February 6, 2017. Board Chair Ben Traverse presided. Board Members Patrick Kearney, Steven Goodkind, Alec Bauer and Josh O’Hara were also present. Petitioner Anthony Corman was present and testified. Respondent Jeannine Handy Revocable Trust was represented at the hearing by Joseph Handy.

Upon consideration of the evidence and the applicable law, the Board makes the following Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Order:

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Respondent Jeannine Handy Revocable Trust is the owner of a rental unit, 80 Austin Drive, Unit 103, in the City of Burlington which is the subject of these proceedings. Joseph Handy manages the property.
2. Petitioner moved into the rental unit with a lease which ran from December 17, 2015 to December 31, 2016. Monthly rent was $1400.00.
3. Petitioner paid a security deposit of $1700.00¹ to respondent. Petitioner was to receive back his security deposit at the end of the lease minus any amounts withheld for damages.
4. Petitioner vacated the apartment on December 14, 2016. Petitioner returned the keys to Joseph Handy on that date and Mr. Handy knew petitioner was no longer living there.
5. On January 10, 2017, respondent sent a written statement to petitioner at the address of the rental unit, even though petitioner provided a forwarding address to respondent’s property manager. Said statement itemized deductions totaling $675.00 from the deposit. Respondent sent a check in the amount of $1,028.40 with the statement. Petitioner did not receive the statement or the check. When questioned about the timeliness of the notice, Mr. Handy argued that he had until January 14, 2017 to provide notice to petitioner because the lease terminated on December 31, 2016. In addition, petitioner, with respondent's permission, returned to the unit on January 8, 2017 to do some painting as a result of an email he received from Joseph Handy; petitioner got the keys to the apartment from respondent.

6. Interest in the amount of $3.40 was credited to the deposit. Respondent's statement included notice of petitioner's right to appeal the withholding of his deposit.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

7. The City of Burlington's security deposit ordinance, Minimum Housing Code Sec. 18-120, took effect April 10, 1986 and governs any rental arrangements for dwelling units in the City of Burlington entered into or renewed after that date.

8. The State of Vermont's Landlord and Tenant Act, now codified at 9 V.S.A. Sec. 4451-68, applies to rental agreements for residential property entered into, extended or renewed on or after July 1, 1986. Its terms are to "be implied in all rental agreements" to which it is applicable. 9 V.S.A. Sec. 4453.

9. Under the city ordinance, as well as state law (the terms of which must be implied in the parties' rental agreement), a landlord must return the security deposit to a tenant within 14 days from the date on which the tenant vacated or abandoned the dwelling unit, with a written statement itemizing any deductions. City ordinance also provides that the written statement must inform the tenant of the opportunity to request a hearing before the Burlington Housing Board of Review within 30 days of receipt of the landlord's written statement. Minimum Housing Code Sec. 18-120(c). The statement and any payment must be hand-delivered or sent by mail to the last-known address of the tenant, which may be the address of the rental unit if no forwarding address has been provided. Minimum Housing Code Sec. 18-120(c). If a landlord fails to return the deposit with a statement within 14 days, the landlord forfeits the right to withhold any portion of the security deposit. See, Minimum Housing Code Sec. 18-

120(c) and 9 V.S.A. Sec. 4461(e). Petitioner vacated the apartment on December 14, 2016; the keys were returned on that date and respondent knew petitioner was no longer living there. Therefore, respondent had 14 days from December 14 to return the deposit and provide a written statement itemizing any deductions from the deposit. Respondent sent notice on January 10, 2017 – 27 days after petitioner vacated the apartment. The Board concludes notice was not timely; consequently, respondent forfeited the right to withhold any part of the deposit.

ORDER

Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED:

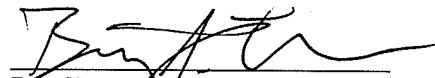

10. Petitioner Anthony Corman is entitled to recover from respondent Jeannine Handy Revocable Trust the following amounts:

a) $1703.40 of the principal amount of the deposit (including interest) improperly withheld after December 28, 2016; and

b) Additional interest of $0.01 per day from December 29, 2016 until such date as the amount improperly withheld is returned to petitioner.

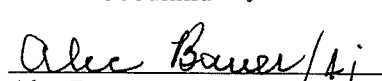

Dated at Burlington, Vermont this 8th of March, 2017.
