NARRATIVE:

Burlington Police have arrested Timothy Montagne on one count of Burglary as well as an outstanding arrest warrant. Montagne was a passenger in a vehicle which was spotted in the downtown area. A motor vehicle stop was conducted and Montagne was taken into custody without incident.

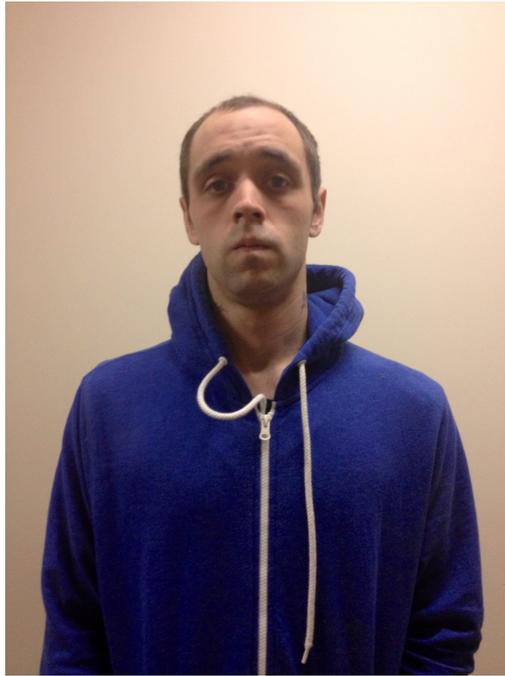

Montagne was identified and is now arrested in reference to a recent Burlington Burglary. Montagne is also being charged with two counts of attempted burglary and two counts of possession of stolen property. Police are continuing to investigate Montagne's potential involvement in other burglaries in the Burlington area and further charges are expected.

Montagne was lodged on probation and Parole violation warrants and held without bail. Montagne will be arraigned on the newest charges on June 3rd.

Montagne's criminal history includes previous convictions for burglary as well as convictions for unlawful trespass.
