NARRATIVE:

On June 07, 2016 at 00:55 hours Burlington Police responded to the intersection of Pearl Street and Hungerford Terrace for an assault that occurred. Police met with witnesses on scene who had assisted a female victim but Police were not able to locate the victim or suspect at this time. Later Police made contact with the victim, a woman named "Sophia". She stated she had been physically assaulted near the intersection of Pearl Street near Hungerford Terrace when she attempted to intercede in an argument between a male and two females. The suspect was described as a white male wearing a dark shirt and dark shorts, with short, curly light brown hair, last seen leaving the area on foot. Burlington Police are requesting that anyone who has any further information regarding the suspect or anyone who may have been in contact with the victim on scene before police arrival to please contact Officer Greg Osilka at 540-2320.
