The purpose of this position is to make sure the needs of each AmeriCorps member is met and addressed. It is important to have experience facilitating and provoking thought, discussion and new ideas.

Key responsibilities will be to:

- Plan and execute monthly training activities, team meetings and team events
- Explore cultural competency tools and examples of diversity and equity initiatives
- Research tools, resources, and examples that help advance issues of racial justice locally
- Facilitate dialogue about race, culture, social justice and how to bring theory into practice
- Promote a better understanding between individual bias and systemic racism
- Encourage collaboration, trust and connectedness within AmeriCorps team members

Skills and Qualifications

- Knowledge about Burlington's ethnic and cultural diversity is necessary
- Direct: Experience working with people from diverse backgrounds
- Creativity and innovation: ability to see opportunities and develop new approaches for organizing across difference
- Prior National Service or experience leading a diverse team is desired
- Self direction: ability to take initiative and be self-sufficient in a small organization environment
- Communications: skilled in speaking directly but sensitively about issues of race, class, gender, sexuality, and other aspects of diversity and oppression within an institutional framework
- Collaborative spirit: ability to lead and work as an integral part of a team of energetic and committed people
- Commitment: to addressing dynamics of power, privilege and oppression on an individual and institutional level
- Education level: no specific educational degree is required

Full Time AmeriCorps positions are 1700 hours of service from September 2014 thru August 2015. Member benefits include a $12,300 living allowance and a $5,350 Education Award (upon successful completion of service) that may be used for qualified educational expenses or payment of qualifying student loans. We All Belong AmeriCorps* members join a team of 24 other members, each serving in agencies and organizations across the Burlington, VT area.
