

CITIZEN PARTICIPATION PLAN

The City of Burlington, through its Community & Economic Development Office (CEDO), strongly encourages public involvement in the Consolidated Plan process, the development of the Assessment Fair Housing (AFH) Plan, and use of Community Development Block Grant money, including Section 108 guarantee loan funds. This Citizen Participation Plan outlines the City's policies and procedures regarding that public involvement.

In the development of the Consolidated Plans, Annual Action Plans, AFH Plan and any substantial amendments to these Plans, the City of Burlington will encourage the participation of local and regional institutions as well as the Chittenden County Homeless Alliance (CoC), nonprofit, philanthropic, community-based and faith based organizations, as well as businesses and developers. In order to respond to the needs of the more than 2,000 LEP Burlington residents, as well as other stakeholders, and ensure they are able to fully access and participate in the development of these plans, CEDO will assess its language needs and identify any need for translation of notices and other vital documents..

The Citizen Participation Plan, together with the Consolidated Plan, the Annual Action Plans, any substantial amendments to these Plans, and the annual performance reports on the progress of the Consolidated Plan and the AFH, are available at the Community & Economic Development Office and on its website.
